

KARI YOUNG

Credentials

- Certified Washington State Elementary Education Teacher (K-8)
- English Language Learner Certification

Education

2014 – Present
Michigan State University
Master of Arts in Educational Technology
CGPA 4.0/4.0

2010 – 2014
Michigan State University
Bachelor of Arts, Elementary Education (Language Arts Teaching Major)
Minor in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)
CGPA 3.67/4.0

Study Abroad

2012
Michigan State University
Learning, Technology, and Culture in Europe
Netherlands, Germany, and France

Certificated Teaching Experience

August 2015 – Present
Fifth Grade Teacher, Cedar Valley Elementary, Covington, WA

- Teaching all core subjects (English Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies)
- Monitoring student growth in the Common Core State Standards
- Collaborating with staff members to support students academically and personally
- Accommodating a variety of student needs and differentiating instruction accordingly
- Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) Committee Member

Uncertificated Teaching Experience

August 2014 – May 2015

Year Long Teaching Internship, 2nd Grade Classroom, Horizon Elementary, Holt, MI

- Involvement in data collection, analysis, and intervention planning
- Created and implemented unit plans in all core subjects

2013 – 2014

Field Placement, 4th Grade Classroom, Pattengill Academy, Lansing, MI

- Planned and taught whole class lessons in each of the four disciplines in an urban setting
- Worked with different groups of focal students in order to obtain additional information and gather assessment data

2014

English Language Learner (ELL) Classroom Placement, Donley Elementary, East Lansing, MI

- Observed the practices of an ELL teacher in multiple age group settings
- Planned and taught one lesson to a small group of ELL students

2012

Child Study – Literacy, East Lansing, MI

- Worked with one first grade student in areas of literacy; emphasis on assessment, strengths, and areas in need of further support in literacy

2012

Resource Room Field Placement, Bingham Elementary, Lansing, MI

- Observed the practices of a teacher in a Resource Room setting
- Provided students with additional support with reading and writing

2010

Teaching Practicum, 2nd Grade Classroom, Oakview Elementary, St. Johns, MI

- Created and taught whole class lessons
- Lead the morning routine
- Assisted students with assignments and reading
- Created bulletin boards and graded assignments